National League of Cities, TV Worldwide to Webcast Senators Clinton, Dodd, Hoyer and Coleman at NLC Congressional City Conference, Washington D.C., March 12-13

National Webcast Sponsored by Freddie Mac, Intrapoint, National Crime Prevention Council and the International Code Council to Feature Conference News, Interviews and Addresses

CHANTILLY, VA--(Marketwire - March 12, 2007) - TV Worldwide, a fast-growing web-based global TV network, announced that it has again been selected to webcast the National League of Cities' (NLC) Congressional City Conference, live from Washington D.C. via the NLC's Internet TV channel (NCNTV, www.NCNTV.org), beginning at 11:00 AM on Monday March 12 through March 13, 2007. Main webcast sponsors include Freddie Mac (www.FreddieMac.com), Intrapoint (www.IntraPoint.com), the National Crime Prevention Council (www.NCPC.org), and the International Code Council (www.ICCSafe.org). Sponsors will have corporate presentations and interviews featured as part of the webcast.

Several prominent members of Congress will address delegates at the Congressional City Conference, including Sen. Hillary Rodham Clinton (D-N.Y.), Rep. Steny H. Hoyer (D-Md.), majority leader of the U.S. House of Representatives, Sen. Christopher Dodd (D-Conn.) and Rep. James Oberstar (D-Minn.).

These members of Congress will join other confirmed keynote speakers for the conference, including U.S. Secretary of Transportation Mary E. Peters, Sen. Norm Coleman (R-Minn.), news commentator David Gergen and political pundit George Stephanopoulos.

NCNTV is part of the National League of Cities' National City Network, www.nationalcitynetwork.org, a portal developed in cooperation with the Fannie Mae Foundation that allows member cities to interact on important issues affecting their communities. TV Worldwide is a partner with NLC in the development of National City Network's NCNTV, and will webcast keynotes, addresses, and interviews surrounding the Congressional City Conference in both live and archived formats.

"We are excited about again being selected to webcast this important event on the National City Network," commented Dave Gardy, Chairman and CEO of TVWorldwide.com. "We applaud NLC for deploying the latest in streaming media technology to foster interactive communication across the country through NCNTV and we thank our sponsors for their support. With all the event activities, including the addresses from prominent members of congress, we expect a huge audience and we are preparing our servers to accommodate the webcast."

The webcast event will be available live and archived for later viewing at www.nationalcitynetwork.org, www.NCNTV.org and www.tvworldwide.com. Participants should have the free Windows Media Player installed prior to the event and should log on at any time prior to 11:00 AM ET on March 12, to test their set up in preparation for the start of the webcast. Questions can be directed to 703-961-9250, ext 222, ext 223 before and during the event.

About the National League of Cities and National City Network TV (NCNTV)

The National League of Cities, the oldest and largest national organization representing cities in the U.S., seeks to strengthen and promote cities as centers of opportunity, leadership and governance.

The goal of National City Network TV is to create a customized community-based Internet TV channel that will facilitate the dissemination of NLC information to the public and partner cities, foster communication with and feedback from these partner cities, provide interactive e-mail, chat and collaborative features that will enhance the utility of the channel and facilitate educational and public/press awareness. The dedicated NLC National

City Network Internet TV channel is being configured with an initial dynamic utility infrastructure to evolve as the public and city partner users become familiar with the functionality and request capabilities to accomplish a range of live and archived presentation functions.
