GovSec, U.S. Law and Ready! Selects TV Worldwide's "Homeland Defense TV" Channel to Webcast Expo for Sixth Consecutive Year

DefensTech, itrezzo, Base Technologies, Harbinger and Others to Be Featured Along With Keynotes, Interviews From the GovSec, U.S. Law and Ready! Show, Live From Washington, D.C., May 9-10, 2007

CHANTILLY, VA -- (MARKET WIRE) -- May 8, 2007 -- TV Worldwide, a global Internet TV Network and streaming media service provider, announced that it had again been selected by National Trade Productions, Inc. to webcast the upcoming GovSec, U.S. Law and Ready! Conference and Exposition, from the Washington Convention Center, May 9-10, 2007. As before, TV Worldwide will webcast the event on its Homeland Defense TV Channel (www.homelanddefenseTV.com), originally launched in partnership with Homeland Defense Journal.

GovSec webcast sponsors who will be featured during the event include DefensTech, itrezzo, Base Technologies, Harbinger Technologies Group, IntraPoint and the University of Findlay. The free live webcast will feature interviews with industry leaders attending GovSec, U.S. Law and Ready!, and highlight the latest homeland security products, services and news. Leaders in the government security, law enforcement and first response sectors will discuss the rapidly evolving demand for their services and the new technologies and solutions to meet that demand.

"We're excited to be able to offer an interactive webcast of the GovSec, U.S. Law and Ready! Exposition to showcase the innovative technology, new products and solutions from more than 500 homeland security industry leaders," said GovSec, U.S. Law and Ready! Director of Government and Industry Relations, Kristina Tanasichuk. "The TV Worldwide webcast allows Exposition participants and curious visitors see the offerings of the Exposition Show Floor year-round."

"We're pleased to again work with NTP, a proven leader in federal trade show production, as they deploy this state-of-the-art approach in delivering the GovSec, U.S. Law and Ready! experience to our Homeland Defense TV audience which will be archived on the channel for a full year," commented Dave Gardy, Chairman and CEO of TV Worldwide. "This has been one of our more well-attended webcasts over the past five years and the growing popularity of the show this year is a clear indication that we can again expect heavy traffic demand nationally from those who want to keep up with what's happening in this growing homeland defense sector."

During the webcast, in cooperation with the University of Findlay's School of Environmental and Emergency Management, TV Worldwide will announce free distribution of the presentation "School Safety and Security: An All-Hazards Approach," to assist learning institutions and their employees in dealing with issues relating to the prevention of violent incidents after the recent tragic shooting at Virginia Tech. Although this presentation was previously distributed for sale, the University of Findlay and TV Worldwide recognized the urgency of disseminating this important information at no cost to assist schools everywhere in developing an effective strategy for preparation, prevention and response. 500 Free DVDs will be distributed at the TV Worldwide webcast booth where University of Findlay experts will be available to answer questions. Free on-line access to the video will be made available after the GovSec event is completed on Homeland Defense TV (www.homelanddefenseTV.com). During GovSec, the University of Findlay and TV Worldwide will also announce a new 3-part video series on Campus/School Security to be distributed via DVD and on-line at Homeland Defense TV.

The GovSec, U.S. Law and Ready! Conference and Exposition webcast will be archived for viewing at www.homelanddefenseTV.com and www.govsecinfo.com. Participants should have the free Windows Media Player installed prior to viewing the event. Questions can be directed to 703-961-9250, ext. 235.
