

DOE/NSF Nuclear Science Advisory Committee Meeting

Agenda

Hilton Washington DC/Rockville Hotel & Executive Meeting Center
 Roosevelt/Madison Conference Room
 1750 Rockville, Pike, Rockville, Maryland, 20852

Friday, June 2, 2017
8:15am – 8:45am	Annual Ethics Briefing (Closed Session)	Rachel Kestenbaum, DOE Office of General Council
8:45am–9:00am	Welcome and Introduction	David Hertzog, NSAC Chair University of Washington
9:00am–9:40am	Perspectives from the Department of Energy	Steve Binkley, (Acting) Director, Office of Science
9:40am–10:20am	Perspectives from the National Science Foundation	James S. Ulvestad, (Acting) Assistant Director for Mathematical & Physical Sciences
10:20am–11:00am	DOE Office of Nuclear Physics Overview	Timothy J. Hallman, Associate Director, Office of Science
11:00am–11:20am	Break
11:20 am–12:00pm	NSF Office of Nuclear Physics Overview	Allena Opper, Program Officer, Nuclear Physics, NSF
12:00 pm–12:30 pm	Discussion of Morning Presentations
12:30pm – 1:30pm	Lunch
1:30pm – 2:00pm	Further Discussion of Morning Presentations
2:00pm –2:05pm	Introduction to Afternoon LRP “Snapshot” Presentations	David Hertzog University of Washington
2:05pm –2:25pm	CEBAF Upgrade Status and Early Physics	Bob McKeown Jefferson Lab
2:30pm –2:50pm	FRIB Construction Status and Day 1 Physics	Thomas Glasmacher Michigan State University
2:55pm –3:15pm	Theory Initiatives	Gail McLaughlin North Carolina State University
3:15pm– 3:35pm	Break
3:35pm– 3:55pm	RHIC Heavy Ion and Spin Program Status	Berndt Mueller Brookhaven National Laboratory
4:00pm– 4:20pm	Status of Targeted Opportunities in Fundamental Symmetries and Neutrinos	Krishna Kumar Stony Brook University
4:20pm– 4:45pm	Public Comment
4:45pm	Adjourn	