

Release ID: 182931

SOURCE: TV Worldwide

Nov 10, 2006 10:55 ET

Vietnam Veterans Memorial Fund Teams With TV Worldwide for Live Web Simulcast of Annual Veteran's Day Observance at the Wall on USVets.TV

Event Available via Satellite and Webcast to American Troops and U.S. Citizens Worldwide Thanks to Sponsorship From United States Association of Veterans in Business and Base Technologies

CHANTILLY, VA--(Marketwire - November 10, 2006) - TV Worldwide, a web-based global TV network, in cooperation with the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Fund, the United States Association of Veterans in Business (www.USAVetbiz.org) and Base Technologies (www.basetech.com) will simulcast live via satellite and the Internet, the Annual Vietnam Veterans Day Observance at the Vietnam Veterans Memorial from 1:00 - 2:30 PM ET on Veteran's Day, Saturday, November 11, 2006. TV Worldwide will feature the webcast on its Internet TV channel for the community of America's veterans, USVets.TV for the fourth consecutive year.

People around the world can participate online through the Internet simulcast, accessible through www.vvmf.org, www.usvets.tv and www.TVWorldwide.com where it will also be archived after the event. In addition, the simulcast will be available to broadcast media outlets via satellite at the transponder coordinates, below.

More than 3,000 Vietnam veterans and supporters are expected to attend this year's ceremony. The Vietnam Veterans Memorial Fund, the non-profit organization established in 1979 to build the Vietnam Memorial, is grateful to the United States Association of Veterans in Business, Base Technologies and TV Worldwide for their support this year in covering the 2006 Veterans Day Ceremony. "These organizations enabled us to bring this year's ceremony to American veterans and their families around the world," said Jan C. Scruggs, Founder and President of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Fund.

Dave Gardy, Chairman and CEO of TV Worldwide, commented, "We are pleased to work with the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Fund, the United States Association of Veterans in Business and Base Technologies to once again make this content available to veterans worldwide on USVets.TV."

"Base Technologies takes great pride in sponsoring this simulcast for the brave men and women currently deployed around the world protecting our nation's freedom and democracy," noted Gary Nakamoto, CEO of Base Technologies.

Richard Ramirez, President of the United States Association of Veterans in Business, stated, "It is a distinct honor for our young organization to help sponsor this year's broadcast and salute our fellow veterans across the nation and the troops around the world."

During the ceremony, Air Force Secretary Michael Wynne will pay tribute to his brother, Patrick Edward Wynne, who lost his life in Vietnam 40 years ago. Other featured speakers include: U.S. Surgeon General Kenneth P. Moritsugu, M.D., MPH; former NASA astronaut Captain Frederick Hauck, USN (Ret.); and CM2 Elizabeth Lopez, USNR. Vikki Keys, superintendent, National Mall and Memorial Parks, and Laureen Otto, secretary of the Vietnam Women's Memorial Foundation, also will provide remarks. Jan Scruggs will serve as master of ceremonies.

TV Worldwide's USVets.TV Veterans Channel is dedicated to all United States veterans of all services and their families. TV Worldwide and the channel sponsors would like to salute America's brave men and women whose sacrifices have preserved our freedom and protected national interests around the world. USVets.TV, (www.usvets.tv), archives streaming media TV Worldwide produced at VVMF events such as Memorial Day, Veterans Day and other ceremonies to recognize the contributions of American veterans and highlight the issues of importance to them.

